

Governance Committee Meeting, August 12, 2021

Stephen Thomas Sewell is a project manager professional with an expertise in property and casualty license. He holds an MBA from Louisiana State University and a BSc. in Business Management and Leadership Development. He has worked on large federal and local projects, and non-profit and corporate projects overseeing risk, workflow, planning, implementation and mitigation strategies for organizations. He has consulted for several boards and senior management on project review and implementation. He has worked on contracts in excess of one-million providing cost-saving analysis and coordinating stakeholder coordination. He has served on a number of community volunteer positions ranging from the Young Leadership Council and the New Orleans Police and Justice Foundation. He completed the Louisiana Association of Public Charter Schools fellowship program.

Tranell E. Barton has worked in public and legislative relations and in higher education. She has expertise in non-profit management, legislative affairs, diversity, equity and inclusion and budgeting and fundraising. She was a fellow with the Urban League of New Orleans ULEAD program for Equity and Diversity. She holds a Ed.D in Educational Leadership and Management and an M.B.A. in Business Administration. She has served on a number of civic and community organizations including the Metropolitan Centers for Community Advocacy, the National Coalition of Black Women, the Louisiana Association for Public, Community, and Adult Education, and has served as a volunteer for Habitat for Humanity. She has worked as a legislative aid for the New Orleans Metropolitan Association of Realtors.
